

Monica Galanti de la Paz, M.D.

Academic of University of Chile
Minister of Health
Chile

Monica Galanti de la Paz is a medical Doctor graduated from the University of Chile.

She specialized in pediatrics and subspecialized in pediatric nephrology from the University of Chile.

She is academic at the University of Chile, serving to the teaching area in pediatrics and complementary and integrative medicine.

She works as a children's nephrologist at the Roberto del Río Public Hospital.

From the year 2000 she began her studies in complementary medicine, certifying in flower therapy and synergetic medicine, approaching reiki and anthroposophical medicine. Between 2014 and 2020, she worked as an advisor in complementary medicines in the Department of Public Policies of the Undersecretary of Public Health for the first 3 years.